PLANETADMIN GETS REGISTERED

Joanne Linden and Linda McFarland

PlanetAdmin is growing up. As we enter the next phase of our company's growth, we are excited to report that PlanetAdmin is official, and we were issued government registration marks for PlanetAdmin, our tagline "Inspiring the greatness within you.", along with our book title "Sitting on a File Cabinet, Naked, With a Gun", "POW!", "Points of Wisdom" and our newsletter title "PlanetaryMotion".

Small steps for sure, but part of the necessary building blocks establishing a professional image and formation of a business that will have staying power.

Our deep appreciation to all of you who support, trust and encourage us in our business venture. It is people like you that will make PlanetAdmin successful.
